GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

29th May 1877, No. 1,852-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

575-A. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th May 1877.

Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Yercaud, 7th May 1877, S.N. No. 259-1,396:—

In reference to G.O., No. 1,611, dated 1st instant (copy enclosed), I have the honor to refer the Board to the statement furnished with my letter, No. 237-1,297, dated 2nd instant, for the details of the estimate of Rs. 50,000 for expenditure in connection with gratuitous relief in this district. The Board will observe that my estimate of Rs. 50,000 was based on the present rate of expenditure, while the figures in the statement above referred to represent the expected increased outlay on this class of relief.

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to the Government Order quoted.

2. The Collector's letter referred to is recorded in Board's Proceedings, 9th May 1877, No. 2,153, of which copy has been sent to Government. He estimated the maximum number at Rs. 42,000 and the cost at Rs. 72,132. The shows 60,420 persons in receipt of gratuitous relief, and at the Collector's estimated rate the cost will be Rs. 1,03,847 per mensem. The Collector's maximum estimate and the actual numbers are given in the margin. The present scale of the relief is even on the Collector's estimate lavish.
