GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

31st May 1877, No. 1,869-E.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 641. From C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated 15th May 1877, No. 275-1,493.

IN reference to G.O., No. 1,091, dated 15th March last, I regret I have to trouble Government again by inquiring what is meant by the last clause of paragraph 1, whether by the words "the balance in favor of the weavers will then probably enable them to keep their looms at work so long as they are sure of Government purchasing their manufactures" Government mean that the advance of materials should be given once only, or that it should be repeated every time the materials advanced are worked up and the manufactures sold to Government. I believe the latter to be the intention of Government, although the wording of the Government Order seems to convey a different meaning. "The balance in favor of the weavers" will not enable them to purchase enough materials to put their looms again to work, but will be just sufficient to maintain them till the subsequent advance of materials is worked up and re-produced in cloths. This balance is generally equal to or less than the cooly, and in very few cases in excess of it. I request early instructions on the point.

No. 642. ORDER THEREON, 31st May 1877, No. 1,869-E.

Miscellaneous.

THE Collector has rightly understood the intention of Government.

2. After the adjustment of each advance a fresh advance of materials may be made.

FOR ORDERS.

Mr. Longley requests
Explanation of the meaning of the G. O. regarding advances to them.

We presume that after
of materials have been made
an advance, and the advance
has been made, pointing out that the balance in the man's possession, after paying back to Govt. the cash advance first made to enable him to keep at work for a time, while not being sufficient to keep him
alive till the next advance
of materials has been adjusted.
I think he is right, &
that ^{the above} is the meaning of Govt. though the words
"not as clear on the point as might have been wished."
