Famine Relief.

the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th May 1877.

the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, o H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated nd May 1877, No. 237-1,297.

reference to the Board's Proceedings, dated 25th ultimo, I have the tate that the village relief is not being overdone as supposed I and onal officers are exercising the most watchful supervision over the dmitted to gratuitous relief, and a good percentage of the lists have been checked by us.

With regard to the Board's apprehensions as to the probable cost of the relief for the whole district, I beg to point out that the cost in each rs materially with reference to its circumstances, and Darampury is otionally famine-stricken.

enclose a statement showing the present and the expected rise in n each taluq, together with their probable cost, which I have calculated age of 11 Pies per head (the mean rate between adults and children), h the Board will see that the total cost per mensem will be Rupees -0 and not 1,26,000 as calculated by the Board.

FAMINE RELIEF, No. 1227-A.

Village Relief in Salem District.—Recording Proceedings of the Board of Revenue passing remarks on letter from the Collector stating that relief is not being overdone.

over the numbers admitted to gratuitous relief and a good percentage of the lists have been personally checked by us.

2. With regard to the Board's apprehensions as to the probable cost of the gratuitous relief for the whole District, I beg to point out that the cost in each Taluq differs materially with reference to circumstances; and Daraapuram is very exceptionally famine stricken.

3. I enclose a statement shewing the present and the expected rise in numbers in each taluq, together with the probable cost which I have calculated at an average of 11 pice per head (the mean rate between adults and children) from which the Board will see that the total cost per mensem will be Rupees 72,187-12-4, and not 126000 as calculated by the Board
