GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

4th June 1877, No. 1,892-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—
No. 47-A. . . Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 26th May 1877, Miscellaneous No. 7,640.

Read the following letter from H. LEFANU, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector of Salem, to C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, dated Denkincotha, 10th May 1877, S.N. No. 434.

WITH reference to your note to Board's Proceedings, No. 6,515, dated 3rd May 1877 (herewith returned), I have the honor to state that Mr. Hosie only joined on the 27th ultimo, and allowing for the time required to take charge and acquaint himself with what was going on, I do not think he has had a fair opportunity of showing what he can do or means doing. What he has done to date is I think fair, considering the circumstances.

2. I would strongly deprecate any further change in the executive of this taluq. The personnel of all the four ranges into which it is divided has been changed in all cases once and in some twice in the brief time that I have been in charge and at the most critical stage of the famine. The situation is embarrassing enough as it is, but any further change might entail very serious consequences.

3. After a fortnight I shall be in a position to state if Mr. Hosie should be retained or not. Even if he should not be the best person available, I would still think that he has acquired some knowledge rather than call in a stranger.

FORWARDED to the Board of Revenue with a request that they will sanction the retention of Mr. Hosie's services in connection with famine relief.
SALEM,
14th May 1877. (Signed) C. T. LONGLEY, Collector.

SUBMITTED for the sanction of Government.
2. Mr. Hosie was formerly employed in Coorg in the Survey Department, but resigned. He was reported to have been lazy when so employed, but the Collector wishes to give him a trial and proposed to pay him Rs. 100 per mensem with Rs. 30 horse allowance.

Secretary.

No. 47-B.

ORDER THEREON, 4th June 1877, No. 1,892-A.

Miscellaneous.

As the Collector, with a knowledge of Mr. Hosie's antecedents, wishes to give him a trial, the Government sanction his temporary employment on the terms proposed.

The Board have enquired in the Survey Office regarding Mr Hosie and they find that it is on record that had he not resigned he would have been dismissed for incorrigible laziness.

In these circumstances they presume that the Collector will not wish to employ him.
