Government House
5th June. 1877.

Dear General,

By order I telegraphed as follows to Mr. Wedderburn on the 30th ultimo.

Governor says if you are available for employment can utilize immediately.
Mr. Wedderburn replies:

3. I am very sorry for telegraph of the 30th, and as one of my subordinates

Mr. J. J. Zellerbach of the Northern Division is prostrate by fever - I have put Lt. Wedderburn in charge of the relief works & liars in part of that range -

"Should not the utilization of his services be communicated to the Govt. of India under whom the Punjab force is?"

I am directed by His Grace to request you to make the necessary application for the services of

Lieutenant J. A. Wedderburn

Brig. Punjab Infantry saying that - this officer's colloquial knowledge of Tamil & Telugu makes him a useful addition to the temporary famine staff of the Po.

Society.
