To

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE LORD GEORGE FRANCIS HAMILTON,
Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 6th October 1898.

MY LORD,

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with Your Lordship's Despatch No. 59-Rev., dated the 15th April 1897, regarding the deputation of Mr. Ross up to 31st March 1898, on special duty in connection with the revision of the General Tenancy Bill for the Madras Presidency and the framing of a special Tenancy Bill for the Malabar district, we have the honour to forward a copy of further correspondence with the Government of Madras on the subject.

2. In letter No. 61, dated the 31st January 1898, the Government of Madras reported the progress made in the work and asked for the retention of Mr. Ross on special duty for a further period of two years from the 1st April 1898. We expressed our inability to recommend to Your Lordship that Mr. Ross's deputation should be extended for a longer period than six months. To this we gave provisional sanction pending consideration of a further letter promised by the Government of Madras in support of their proposals.

3. Mr. Ross died on the 14th May 1898, and the Government of Madras in their letter No. 2348, dated the 2nd June 1898, requested sanction to the employment of the Honourable Mr. C. S. Crole, C.I.E., Senior Member of the Board of Revenue, to continue the special work on which the late Mr. Ross had been employed with a similar deputation allowance of Rs. 10 per diem.

4. From our letters Nos. 1260, and 1338, dated the 25th June and the 7th July 1898, respectively, to the Government of Madras it will be observed that we doubted the necessity for placing the services of another highly paid officer on special duty in connection with the Madras Tenancy Bill, the Malabar Bill and the codification of a Revenue Law for the Presidency, and we asked for a further explanation of the reasons which in the opinion of the Local Government justified the proposal. These reasons are given in the Madras Government letter No. 3221, dated the 3rd August 1898. Since this letter was received, Mr. Crole has withdrawn from the conduct of the Bills and returned to his ordinary duties on the Board of Revenue, and we have accorded our sanction in anticipation of Your Lordship's orders to his employment on special duty up to the date of his reversion but without any deputation allowance. We have also informed the Madras Government that no further deputation in connection with the legislation now pending should be made by them without previous sanction.

5. We trust that our proceedings will meet with Your Lordship's approval.

We have the honour to be,

MY LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servants,

(Signed) ELGIN.
