GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

6th June 1877, No. 1,909-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 99-A. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 26th May 1877.

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Rupanagudi, 18th May 1877, No. 385.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board, Miscellaneous No. 6,587, dated the 5th instant, directing me to nominate a Special Deputy Collector, I have the honor to submit the name of Mr. J. G. Firth, Tahsildar of Bellary, for the appointment.

2. This officer draws at present Rs. 225,* and receives besides registration fees, so that the nomination to be a Deputy Collector of the 4th class will be no promotion to him.

* Rs. 250 including famine allowance.

3. Mr. Firth is the highest graded Tahsildar in the district; I was desirous at the commencement of the famine to have obtained for him the appointment of Deputy Collector, but as it would have involved a pecuniary loss to him, he did not wish it himself. Now the increase in the rate of the travelling allowance makes things a little better, but in these days there is no doubt that 3 Rupees a-day will not cover his expenses.

4. I have, therefore, the honor respectfully but most strongly to urge the Board to recommend that Mr. Firth be posted as a Temporary Deputy Collector of the 3rd class.

5. In urging this I would point out that he has drawn his present pay for nearly thirteen years, that his character is most exemplary, and that he is the best qualified man in the district for the appointment; indeed, his claims are far superior to the three native Deputy Collectors who have lately been promoted.

6. I beg, therefore, that Government may be pleased to appoint him a Temporary Deputy Collector on the salary of a 3rd-class officer of that grade.

7. The service list is enclosed.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. As it would be a direct pecuniary loss to Mr. Firth to be appointed a 4th-class Deputy Collector, the Board recommend his case for favorable consideration.

They do not, however, suggest that his appointment as 3rd-class Deputy Collector should place him over the heads of those now in the 4th class, but merely that his temporary appointment should carry 3rd-class pay.
