Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 118. From C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Namkal, 25th May 1877, S. N. No. 1,608.

In reply to your telegram, dated the 24th, I have the honor to state that under the terms of G.O. of the 10th March, No. 1,317, I considered I was at liberty to employ Mr. Epps where his services would be most useful, and as he had considerable professional experience, and it was men with this experience that were urgently needed by the District Engineer, I placed Mr. Epps at Major Montgomerie's disposal, and he (Mr. Epps) has been in charge of the Pennagundapuram Project since its commencement. What I now require is more Europeans to supervise the distribution of "gratuitous relief" in villages.

No. 119. ORDER THEREON, 7th June 1877, No. 1,919.

Miscellaneous.

It is no use sending the Collector to enquire what is to be done, as he is particular, and the Government are unable to supply him with any persons of that class who are acquainted with it.
