GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

7th June 1877, No. 1,921.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 122. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th May 1877.

Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Vumpalli, 11th May 1877, Extra No. 1,045.

REFERRING to paragraph 2 of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 15th February last, I have the honor to report that I have caused careful inquiry, by means of a house-to-house visitation made by Mrs. Diana Taylor, a respectable Eurasian woman residing at my head-quarters, who is usually employed to muster gosha pensioners, into the number and circumstances of the gosha women in want of State relief in Cuddapah.

The Town Rajee was asked to make out a list which exhibited a total of 163, but it was found that he had not been over-particular in regard to his own relatives. How far he could be trusted is shown from the fact that when I spoke to him regarding gosha relief he said that the numbers would come to 1,200.

3. Mrs. Taylor's list has been checked by other means, and the Zillah Surgeon, Dr. Iyaswamy, who has given much assistance in this as well as many other matters connected with relief operations, believes it to be correct.

4. These women and, up to the 20th April, twenty-one gosha and young children have been relieved.

5. I have appointed Mrs. Taylor to make house-to-house visitation, report and pay the relief doles; and as she has a good deal of moving about and a considerable amount of work, and as we must in a great measure trust to her honesty, I have given her a salary of Rs. 30 a-month.

6. The scale which, after consulting with Dr. Iyasawmy and Mr. Johnstone, I fixed is as follows:—

Adult female and girl over twelve, $1\frac{1}{2}$ Rs. per month.
Girl between eight and twelve, $\frac{3}{4}$ Rupee a-month.
Boys and girls between three and eight, $\frac{1}{2}$ a Rupee a-month.
Boys over seven, not to receive relief.

7. I myself think this rather too low, and would feel inclined to increase the allowance to Rs. 2, 1, and $\frac{3}{4}$.

8. I trust that the arrangements made will meet with approval. It is highly probable, if things continue much longer as they are, that gosha relief will have to be much extended.

The Board approve Mr. Price's arrangements, and authorize him to use his discretion as to the increase of the rate of relief to gosha women and children which he thinks necessary.

Revenue Department, 7th June 1877, No. 1,921.

2. The sanction of Government is requested for the salary proposed for Mrs. Taylor.
