Read the following paper:—

No. 62. From G. H. M. BATTEN, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department, dated Calcutta, 2nd March 1877, No. 53.

Customs—Sea.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your endorsements, Nos. 187 and 374 (Miscellaneous—Revenue), dated respectively the 27th January and the 13th February 1877, forwarding copies of letters from the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, reporting that the privilege of passing wines, spirits, provisions, and stores for Officers of the Royal Navy in active service on board Her Majesty's vessels without payment of duty, had been extended to certain officers of the Royal Navy serving under the Government of India, viz., to officers of the Indian Marine Survey and others.

2. I am to point out that the privilege allowed in Section 144 of the Consolidated Customs Act VI of 1863, and the letter of the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 184, dated 4th May 1864, should be strictly confined, in accordance with the distinct terms of the Act, to officers of Her Majesty's Navy employed in actual service on boardships belonging to the Royal Navy. All concessions which have been granted beyond this limit should be withdrawn.

No. 54.

Copy forwarded to the Government of Madras for information and guidance, in continuation of correspondence ending with that Government's letter, No. 559, dated the 23rd December 1876 (Marine Department—Stores).
