GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

13th June 1877, No. 1,975.

Read the following papers:—

No. 249. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th May 1877.

Read the following letter from J. GROSE, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 4th May 1877, No. 2,170.

I HAVE the honor to submit, for favorable consideration, an application from the Treasury Deputy Collector asking for the grant to the Press Establishment of extra pay at the rates allowed in the Government Press for working out of office-hours.

2. The profits from the working of the Press during the last half year [illegible] nted to Rs. 2,476.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From M. DESIKA CHARY, Officiating Deputy Collector, in charge of Treasury, Nellore, to J. GROSE, Esq., Collector of Nellore, dated 3rd May 1877, No. 170.

I HAVE the honor to forward, for your favorable consideration, the accompanying appli[illegible] from the Press Superintendent relative to the grant of extra pay to the servants of the Press Department for working out of the regulated office-hours.

2. You will observe from the accompanying Memorandum prepared by the Superintendent that the total outturn of the work during the last six months of the official year, 1876-77, is estimated at Rs. 4,722-7-3, while the expenditure, including establishment charges, amounted to Rs. 1,246-11-5 only.

3. As the work in the Press Department is daily increasing, and as the work, therefore, cannot be expected to be done satisfactorily without arrears, unless extra aid is given or the present establishment work extra hours, I beg to support the application.

From Mr. L. T. LAZARO, Superintendent Collectorate Press, Nellore, to M. DESIKA CHARY, Deputy Collector in charge of Treasury, dated 26th March 1877.

IN consequence of the unusual and heavy pressure of work existing in the Press Office at present, I beg most respectfully to state that the establishment is unequal to the demands imposed upon it. To get through the work I would therefore propose that in future, and as a temporary measure, the working hours of the Press Office be held from 6 A.M. to 6 P.M. instead of from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. as hitherto; and to request you will please accord your sanction to this proposal. For the extra hours the establishment is thus required to work, the men may receive extra remuneration as is allowed in the Madras Government Gazette Press.

2. In G.O., dated 7th April 1877, No. 1,369, the Board have received permission to sanction extra hands for District Press Offices when absolutely necessary; but this does not include the case of giving extra pay for over-work,—a question which, as far as the Board are aware, has not yet been raised in the districts.

3. It will be observed that the Collector considers that the plan of over-work is in the present case better than that of extra hands.

Miscellaneous.

His Grace the Governor in Council cannot for a moment admit the innovation proposed by the Collector, and declines to sanction the grant of extra pay for work done out of hours.

2. He observes that the Press earnings are merely a nominal computation, except as regards cash-payments for private work.

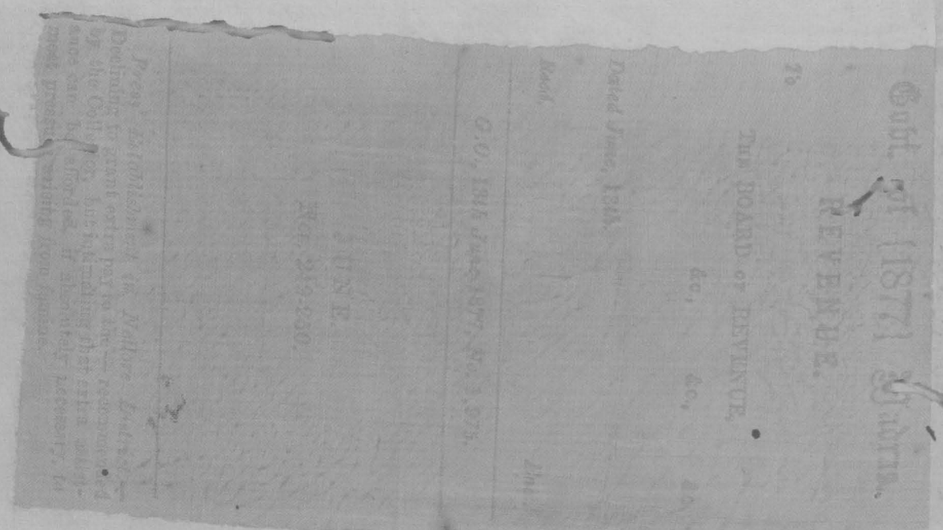

3. Extra assistance can be afforded, if absolutely necessary, to meet pressure arising from famine under G.O., 7th April last, No. 1,369.
