Sir
I am truly ashamed to address you after what occurred.

On the 1st inst I engaged a cart to proceed to Badwail and unfortunately for me got a bottle of gin intending to take it with me. I opened it at the Station and (having had a sunstroke lately) very little flew to my head. After this I knew nothing and was like a mad man. The Traffic Manager reported me to the Collector who suspended me at least as I was signified by the Police Officer at whose Gate I stopped the following morning on my way to Budewick.

Finding that I was suspected & reported to you. I thought it unnecessary to proceed till a reply was received from you.

As I said before I did not know what I was doing - so I told my few things & wandered about, I was taken up by the Police and placed before the Magistrate who pronounced me a Vagrant and sent me to the Work House where I am now.

I earnestly beg Sir that you will pardon this my first offence and I swear to you on oath that it will never occur again. but by my energy & devotion 935 to duty I will endeavour to wipe out this blot on my name.

I have never been addicted to drink and very little affects me. but I will not touch it again. and I feel sure that a more experienced or harder working Assistant will not be found on the works.

I humbly apologise for presuming to address you privately but I am in misery - My name which has always been good will for ever be blasted. and my children will starve while I am in jail here for 6 months - For their sakes Sir I beg you to overlook my fault this once, and your kindness will not be abused - I will soon work on a smaller salary feeling confident that I will not fail to redeem my character Once more I beseech your help to enable me to work out the advance of 50¢ and to save my poor children from starvation & misery, as well as to save my name from ruin Anxiously awaiting your orders.

I have the honor to be Sir
Your most Obedt. Servant
Henry Handberg

Recd 22/2-

In continuation of my appeal of 16th inst. I beg most respectfully to address you again and solicit your kind indulgence.

I earnestly pray that you will not be too severe on me for this complicated offence but will order me to work in any district, where I will strain every nerve to regain your good opinion. By undivided attention and devotion to my duties -

I trust Sir, you will not for one false step, punish me so severely, as to deprive me of my situation, before I have even had an opportunity of smaller salary for to do proving my abilities, as apart from the fatal injury it would me in my professional career. would cause an estrangement in my family, which would undoubtedly affect my children.

I should have thought of all this before but believe me such results were never dreamed of, when I took the fatal glass, after which I can no more be held responsible for my actions, than an insane man who commits suicide.

If you will graciously overlook the past, it will be a severe lesson to me and before this I am sure is on I am sure of regaining my good name. And when I return to Childrew it will be with a heart full of gratitude to you for your kindness.

I will not intrude longer on your valuable time, but will conclude

Sir
I have the honor to address you in re. your order No. 1463 A. of 15th March 1877 copy of which has this day been received by me from the Collector of Andampet and from which I am given to understand that my services are dispensed with.

In continuation of my letter to you of the 16th & 19th inst. I once more believe you will not deal so very severely with me as the consequences of dismissal for so heinous a vice as drink will be very disastrous to all my future prospects and the past 17 years certainly ^{certificates} will be ad-little use as so much waste paper when it comes to be known that I was dismissed from Famine Dept for "intemperate habits" -

I am not addicted to habits of intemperance and never have been but as I fully explained my late unfortunate false step in my letter to you I need not occupy your time further with it -

All I solicit now is that I may be given another trial on even 100p of messem - to enable me to clear my name of the crushing charge of "intemperate habits" - I trust the Govt of Madras will honor my petition with its considerations -

I have not the means here of returning to my home in the S.W.
Provinces and have already suffered intensely by being thrust into a work house and styled a "Vagrant"
