was certainly led to believe that I was entitled to the whole of my Military pay and allowances in addition to the 300 Rupees special allowance. As I remain in the books of my own Battery (F. Battery 20th Brigade) I presume that my Military pay will be drawn in that Battery and that I shall only draw the special allowance here.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board are of opinion that the Accountant-General's view is wrong, as the horse allowance claimed by Lieutenant Lockyer is part of his regimental pay and allowance, and not a special famine allowance. It is the intention that allowances of the latter kind should be drawn from the staff salary of Rupees 300.

ORDER THEREON, 16th June 1877, No. 2,017-A.

Miscellaneous.

THE interpretation put by the Accountant-General on G.O., 8th March,
No. 990, is correct, as it is admitted that Lieutenant Lockyer holds no staff appointment, and it is clearly laid down that in the case of such officers the allowance of 300 Rupees is to include horse allowance.
