GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

18th June 1877, No. 2,020.

Read the following paper :—

No. 349. From A. J. WALL, Esq., M.D., Consulting President of the Snake Poison Commission, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 9th June 1877.

I have been requested by Sir Joseph Fayrer, Physician to the Secretary of State for India in Council, to procure for him some information on the subject of the destruction of animals which are dangerous to human life in India. The points on which he desires information are three:—

1st.—What are the animals, including snakes, for which rewards are issued?

2nd.—What amount is paid for each individual of each kind?

3rd.—Who identifies the animal and disburses the reward in each district? And does the Government employ persons to hunt and destroy these animals?

2. If you could give me the regulations of your Government on these points for the purpose of being forwarded to Sir Joseph Fayrer, he will be much obliged to you.
