GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

18th June 1877, No. 2,029-B.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 368-C. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 6th June 1877.

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 29th May 1877, No. 181.

In reply to official memorandum, Board of Revenue, dated 26th May 1877, No. 880, I have the honor to remark that prices in Collegal are influenced by the state of the market in Mysore to which it adjoins. Relief-works were projected, but as they attracted no labor in the beginning of the famine, they were discontinued. Relief-houses, however, have of late been opened, and are increasing. It is hoped that the rains may bring down the price of grain. As yet, no suggestion has been made for relief-works; the people are not numerous, and will soon doubtless have their cultivation to occupy them. Inquiry will, however, be made whether in consequence of the rise in grain-prices the works should be resumed.

Submitted for the information of Government, with reference to Board's Proceedings, 26th May 1877, No. 2,389.

The high price in Collegal referred to seems to indicate distress in the adjoining parts of Mysore.
