REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

18th June 1877, No. 2,029.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 367. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st June 1877.

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collr. of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq.,
Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 26th May 1877, No. 410.

In consequence of the business in the Account Department having increased considerably in the way of checking and passing salary, travelling allowance, and other bills of the special famine officers, preparing the several statements required by the Accountant-General, and the cheques for the payment of the same; the correspondence connected therewith being great, and various orders to Tahsildars having to be prepared regarding the famine expenditure and regarding remittances made to the taluqs, as well as in consequence of great deal of miscellaneous work connected with the above; it was found necessary to employ, from the 1st ultimo, three extra hands, one on 60 Rs. and two on 50 Rs. each, to prevent the work falling into arrears. I approved of the arrangement, as I consider the entertainment of these clerks absolutely necessary. I have the honor, therefore, to request you will be good enough to obtain sanction for the same.

SANCTIONED.

2. The Board would be glad to hear of some progress being made in adjusting the famine outlay. No bills have yet been received from the district.
