Madras 14 June 1897Hon^{ble}
Sir William Robinson K.C.S.I.

My dear Sir William Robinson,

I enclose a memo giving the approximate value of the cloths which I return, as compared with the cost as given on the slip of paper accompanying each cloth. You will see that as a rule the valuation is slightly under the cost.

In ordinary times the cloths would be worth considerably more, but in consequence of the famine their value has been much depreciated. A year ago, many have been sold for considerably more than the cost.

Believe me,

Yours Sincerely
George G. Arbuthnot

Most Respectable Sir,

I most respectfully beg to submit that having received instructions last night from the collector on account at Ahtor for the despatch of all clothes manufactured by the famine weavers I have arranged to avoid delay to send at first the clothes in readiness in the Salem Town by tomorrow's goods train in charge of a person with the due invoice.

I am proceeding to Raipur and other places where also they are manufactured and shall so arrange as to send them on Friday Good-bye and hope to avail myself of this opportunity of bringing to your honor's kind notice that some of the cloths being famous for their texture will fetch higher price than those the masters of which have been taken by your honor.

The enclosures in your honor's letter to the collector are herewith submitted.

I beg to remain

Most Respected Sir

Your Most Obedient Servant

P. P. Rajasamudram

Special D^y Collector.
