No. 433. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd March 1877,

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 10th March 1877, No. 1,017, Revenue Department.

ABSTRACT.—Passing orders on Board's Proceedings recommending that sanction be accorded for the defence of suit filed by Thorapalli Agraharamdars in Salem District regarding sale of the agraharam for arrears of revenue.

COMMUNICATED to the Collector of Salem, who will, through the Collector of North Arcot, obtain from Mr. Jones an explanation as regards his conduct in the matter.

2. The Board beg Government to consider what the promise of consideration of the plaintiffs' position means. It can only be that the difference between the purchase money at the second sale and the value of the property should be paid to the plaintiffs in addition to costs of suit. The whole will amount to at least 16,000 Rupees.

3. The Collector should file the accompanying answer in pursuance of the orders of Government.

Revised answer 3

The property referred to in the plaint was on the 4 July 1876 sold for arrears of revenue due thereon under act 2 of 1864 (Madras) and the sale is legal & valid.

2. The sum in deposit was Rs 1909-12-6 and not Rs 700 as alleged by plaintiffs and the sum due being Rs 3113-8-5 which the amount in deposit was which 1st defendant had no control, did not cover 1st defendant had no option but to proceed against the agraharam. The 1st defendant did issue notice to the then Tahsildar A. D. M. Jones on the 25 October 1875 to proceed against the movable property of the 2nd defendant for the arrears
