Read the following papers:—

No. 64. From Brigadier-General H. O'CONNELL, Quartermaster-General, to Colonel J. MICHAEL, c.s.i., Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 28th February 1877, No. 1572-A.

In obedience to Order of Government, dated 1st instant, No. 532, I have the honor, by order, to submit a revised list for the distribution of copies of the New Route Book for this Presidency. The revised list contains forty-five plain and fifty-one interleaved copies.

2. The original list for 431 copies is also forwarded for comparison. It will be observed that many departments, as well as all regiments, have been omitted from the revised list for gratuitous distribution, and that in some cases the numbers of copies have been reduced.

3. His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief considers that those departments, &c., that have been omitted should be required to purchase such copies as they may require.

No. 65.

ORDER THEREON, 4th April 1877, No. 2007.

His Grace the Governor in Council approves the revised list submitted with the foregoing letter. The Supervisor, Government Press, will accordingly send forty-five plain and fifty-one interleaved copies, when ready, to the Quartermaster-General.

"The Government consider that the work should only be issued gratis to officers, Civil and Military, who may need it for the effectual performance of their duties, and to those Governments which may ask for copies, and which give their publications to this Presidency."

2. The requirements of Civil Officers will, with reference to paragraph 2* of O.G., No. 532, dated 1st February 1877, be considered in the several departments of the Secretariat concerned.
