Famine Relief.

Read the following papers:—

No. 454. From J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Royachoti, 16th May 1877, Extra No. 1,111.

ADVERTING to the Proceedings of Government, Revenue Department, No. 56, dated 8th January last, I have the honor to inquire whether I should place destitute children in relief-camps and care for them there, or [illegible] persons as may be selected.

2. I myself incline to the opinion that the former course should be followed, but the Acting Head Assistant Collector holds the other view.

3. I have therefore considered it necessary to make this reference.

4. I have had monthly returns of such children in the accompanying form sent in to me by Divisional Officers. The number reported has not been very great, but I am inclined, from what I have seen of my inspection of village relief, to think that there are many orphans and deserted children who, though relieved, have no one to look after them, and I think that it would be advisable that a general order to send them to relief-camps, where they could be looked after by a woman appointed for the purpose, should be issued.

Read G.O., Revenue Department, dated 21st May 1877.

Abstract.—Referring a letter from the Collector of Cuddapah requesting whether he should place the destitute children in relief-camps.

The Board are of opinion that when suitable persons can be found to take the children, they should be made over to them, and that will be better than sending them to a relief-camp; but when such persons cannot be found, the children should be sent to the camps and cared for as proposed by Mr. Price.

FOR ORDERS.

How destitute children shd be sent for - whether at chief camps or by selected persons at their own houses. When G.O. of 8th Jan. 77 was passed there were 56 relief camps in existence.

29/5/77. [illegible]

This is a matter of grave importance I would not keep Children & Camps I would have them released as at present in villages as famine progresses they will gradually flow in many cases perhaps to Camps if the latter have to be closed
