Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 490-C. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th June 1877.

Read the following letter from L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Fort St. George, 1st June 1877, No. 2,311.

With reference to G.O., No. 1,719, dated 14th May 1877, I have the honor to request that the Collector of Chingleput may be instructed, in the communication the Board is likely to make on the subject, to exhibit the advances therein referred to in the public accounts as required in this Office Circular, No. 141, dated 9th April 1877.

2. It is desirable that the heads of account relating to famine relief should contain only such expenditure as is likely to be finally charged off to famine, and that advances practically made under the Land Improvement Act, though in relief of ryots distressed, the recovery of which will not be effected perhaps for seven or eight years, should be distinctly recorded as recoverable advances as if made regularly under Act XXVI of 1871.

COMMUNICATED to the Collector of Chingleput who will exhibit the advances

2. The Board, however, would suggest to the Accountant-General that it would be advisable to provide for the special advances from Famine Funds, i.e., those for wells and the amounts less than Rupees 300, being separately recorded in the accounts. There are budget provisions for ordinary advances under the Act, and such are, in fact, being made in the distressed districts as well as others. It appears to the Board that these might easily be kept separate from the famine advances, which are of a special kind and are made under special procedure.
