GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Famine Relief

Read the following paper :—

No. 492-A. From Surgeon J. MAITLAND, M.B., Sanitary Medical Officer, Madura, to Surgeon-Major W. R. CORNISH, F.R.C.S., Sanitary Commissioner for Madras, dated Tiruchooly, 6th June 1877.

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the letter from the Sub-Collector of Madura to the Board of Revenue, dated 1st May 1877, and return the same with reference to the conclusion that the effects of the distress can be more accurately gauged on gratuitous relief than on relief works. I find in this part of the district it is just as difficult in the one case as in the other, and for the very reason of emigration to which the Sub-Collector refers the state of matters here is as follows :—

1. When distress first began to be felt many of the young and middle-aged men and many of the women emigrated to Ceylon.

2. When they went they either abandoned or left in the relief camps the old men and women, the young children, and a few young women.

3. These children in relief camps have naturally and speedily acquired a very good condition; the old, on the other hand, have remained in a frail and, —that is in many cases, a normal condition.

4. All lepers, cripples, the deform[illegible] meu [illegible] camps.

5. As a result of these factors the camps here show a very large number of the old and frail of both sexes, a great many fat and healthy children, and a large sprinkling of blind, deformed, lepers, and cripples.
