Famine Relief.

The following papers:—

Telegram from Collector of Tinnevely, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Madras, dated 19th May 1877.

G.O., No. 1,600-C, dated 30th April. May relief-works nearly completed be finished; this will save confusion and waste of money.

No. 496-CC. Telegram from Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, to Collector of Tinnevely, dated Fort St. George, 25th May 1877, No. 328.

Your telegram of 19th. Famine funds cannot be spent except for relief of actual want or distress. If completion of works necessary, might be done from Local or Municipal Funds. Send particulars of works referred to and estimates of remaining cost.

No. 496-D. From J. B. PENNINGTON, Esq., Collector of Tinnevely, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Trichendur, 8th June 1877,
No. 384.

With reference to your telegram, No. 328, of the 25th ultimo, I have the honor to forward herewith, lists of incomplete famine relief-works received from the Head Assistant Collector and General Charge Deputy Collector. It will be seen that there are altogether twenty-nine works, which, with the exception of two are all irrigation works, and, therefore, not chargeable to Local or Municipal Funds.
Earthwork to the amount of Rs. 20,112 was estimated for these works, and a good deal more than half has been completed. The tanks in Sattur have received some supply since the work was stopped, and the District Engineer will be requested to give his opinion as to what is to be done with them now.
