GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

27th March 1877, No. 1084.

Insolvents.

Read the following paper:—

No. 345. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 22nd March 1877, No. 973.

Book Department.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that Mr. Lodwick, on the 5th October 1876, suspended C. Soobramoneya Mudelly, a supernumerary clerk in this office on his applying for the benefit of the Insolvent Act.

2. On the 19th March 1877 he produced an order from the Chief Clerk of the Insolvent Court to the effect that his application had been withdrawn.

3. This clerk was entertained on the 14th June 1869, between that date and the 5th October last, he has been placed under stoppage of half pay for 141 days and of full pay for 249 days on account of absence from office.

4. As his career has been so unsatisfactory, and as his withdrawal from taking the Act may be a mere temporary measure, I have not restored him and report the

5. I understand that it is usual to report such matters to Government, but it appears to me, I venture respectfully to suggest, that it is troubling the Government unnecessarily to do so.

No. 346. ORDER THEREON, 27th March 1877, No. 1084.

The Rules regarding public servants taking the benefit of the Insolvent Act are laid down in the Orders marginally noted,

* Public Works, G.O., 28th October 1859, No. 2539, and the Governor in Council sees no reason for departing from them in the cases of all servants whom Heads of Offices may desire to restore to their appointments.

2. In the present case the Accountant-General has not considered it necessary to restore the supernumerary clerk to his appointment and no report was therefore necessary.
