GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

23rd June 1877, No. 2,092-B.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 512-C. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th June 1877.
Read the following letter from W. H. GLENNY, Esq., Sub-Collector of Bellary, to J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, dated Adoni, 1st June 1877, No. 207.

WITH reference to G.O., No. 1,712, dated 14th May 1877, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased, on special grounds, to allow me to continue to spread the Sunday wage to famine coolies over the six working days.

2. Where as in my taluqs payments are made bi-weekly, it is obviously for administrative purposes a great convenience to have the week's disbursements equal or nearly so. It simplifies calculation and accounts. But further all my printed forms, nominal roll, books, indent forms, Paymasters' reports, and accounts, &c., have been devised and printed to suit the system of making two nearly equal disbursements per week, one on Monday and the other on Thursday.

FORWARDED to the Board of Revenue for their orders.

(Signed) J. H. MASTER,
Collector.

7th June 1877.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government. Where bi-weekly payments are the rule, the practice pursued by the Sub-Collector seems to be unobjectionable and need not, the Board think, be disturbed.

No. 512-D. ORDER THEREON, 23rd June 1877, No. 2,092-B.

Miscellaneous.

UNDER the circumstances reported His Grace the Governor in Council sees no sufficient reason to direct any change, and resolves to allow the existing practice to continue till further orders.
