GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

29th June 1877, No. 2,146.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 644. From H. G. SHARP, Esq., B.C.S., on Special Duty, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Nellore, 26th June 1877.

With reference to G.Os., dated, respectively, the 28th March and the 27th April 1877, Nos.
1,268-A and 1,589-A, of which copies are annexed for your convenience, I have the honor to submit for consideration the question whether the sanction for one set of both the establishments therein approved should not be transferred to Bellary from the date on which I join that district, since probably no officer will succeed me here, and my establishment there could be appointed and made ready for work without the delay which might occur on then applying for sanction.

2. I would, however, respectfully recommend that the pay of the peons, if not of the other officers as well, be raised to such a scale as may be thought fit in consideration of the greater degree of famine prevailing in Bellary.

No. 645.

ORDER THEREON, 29th June 1877, No. 2,146.

Miscellaneous.

TRANSFERRED to the Collector of Nellore, through whom it should have been forwarded by Mr. Sharp.

2. Mr. Grose will inform that officer that such an office establishment as the Collector of Bellary may consider necessary for him will be provided on his arrival at that place, and that the present reference was quite unnecessary.
