GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

30th June 1877, No. 2,162.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 676. From the Hon. T. C. HOPE, C.S.I., Additional Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to the Government of Madras, Revenue Department, dated Simla, 20th June 1877, No. 532.

I AM directed to inform you that the items quoted marginally from the statement of famine appointments for the week ending April 21st which accompanied your letter, No. 1,726, of the 15th instant, have been considered by His Excellency the Governor General in Council, and to request that, with the permission of His Grace the Governor in Council, you will be so good as to explain the grounds upon which these increases have been granted.

2. The first and third cases, I am to add, are opposed to the principle laid down in paragraph 3 of the Resolution of the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 971, dated February 24th, and the second should apparently have been revised according thereto. The third case will, it would seem, be of very extended application. It confers an increase which has not been granted to any officer in the Bombay Presidency, and which would appear unnecessary, especially considering the fact that the charges of famine officers are mostly much less extended in area than ordinary charges.

Miscellaneous.

SIR,—In reply to your letter of the 20th instant, No. 532, I am directed to state that on Mr. Sharkey's being ordered from Vizagapatam to Bellary, as a temporary measure, in connection with famine relief works, he was granted by this Government the pay of the class of Deputy Collectors next above that to which he belonged, because he was obliged to leave part of his establishment behind him at Vizagapatam and because his transfer necessarily involved him in considerable extra expense.

2. Mr. Sharkey's case was treated as a precedent in granting a similar indulgence to A. Narain Row transferred to Bellary from Nellore as somewhat similar reasons for its grant were stated to exist.

Deputy Collectors employed in famine districts, when such a case might appear necessary, was sanctioned because on the recommendation of the Collector of Bellary the travelling allowances granted to Deputy Collectors in that district were found to be insufficient to cover the expenses they were obliged to incur, and were raised accordingly.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) J. H. GARSTIN,

Additional Secretary to Government.
