Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 28. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th June 1877.

Read the following letter from A. McC. WEBSTER, Esq., Acting Commissioner of the Nilgiris, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Nilgiris, 20th June 1877, No. 59:—

In G.O., No. 1,094, of 15th March last, sanction was accorded to the entertainment of three additional Revenue Inspectors and six peons for a period of three months. The men were entertained on the 28th March and their service expires on the 28th instant.

2. Of the three additional Revenue Inspectors appointed one has been detailed for duty at Musnagudi to supervise the deepening of wells and the distribution of gratuitous relief, one has been attached to the Deputy Tahsildar of Coonoor to assist him and report upon the condition of the villages in his division, the third additional Revenue Inspector was placed under the orders of the permanent Inspector for the Paranganad and Todanad Divisions and was for some time employed in inspecting the condition of the villages near Kotagherry. He has been in charge of the gratuitous relief-camp at Kookulturai since the Local Fund Inspecting schoolmaster was withdrawn from that work.

3. Although the prospects of the district are improving, there is still distress felt in some parts. The two permanent Revenue Inspectors are fully employed with their ordinary duties. I have the honor, therefore, to request that the Board will sanction the retention of the temporary establishment for a further period of three months. The cost of the establishment including pay and horse allowance amounts to Rs. 168 per mensem and has been debited to Famine Relief.

SUBMITTED for the favorable consideration of Government.
