MEMORANDUM.

Some years ago the Fort St. George Gazette used to be issued at 5 P.M. on Tuesdays.

2. Of late this has come to be looked upon as impracticable, and consequently Notices of appointment, notifications, &c., have been received by the Press without any protest, at whatever hour on Tuesday they may have been sent down.

3. Apart from the charge for overtime work, incurred by a late issue of the Gazette, it seems hardly desirable on general grounds that the Government Gazette should be issued between 10 P.M. and 2 A.M., and the Superintendent of the Press is going to make an effort to have it out in future at 5 P.M., if the various Secretaries to Government will assist by sending down notices of appointments, &c., as early as possible on Tuesdays. Notifications containing complicated tabular statements should be sent down, if possible, not later than 2 P.M. on Mondays.

4. While making this request, it is of course understood that there are every now and again emergent notifications which cannot possibly be sent early, and that on such occasions delay in issuing the Gazette is unavoidable.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
13th April 1877.
