GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

10th April 1877, No. 916.

Belts and Badges.

Read the following paper:—

No. 68. From Colonel T. GILLILAN, Controller of Military Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort St. George, 28th March 1877, I.

I have to seek the instructions of Government in regard to an apparent discrepancy in their Order, Judicial Department, No. 311, of 19th February 1876, viz., in the extract from the Revenue Department G.O. appended to paragraph 2 Heads of Departments seem to be empowered to sanction charges for Peons' belts and cloth for table coverings, whereas the following paragraph (3) appears to require all estimates for such charges to be submitted for the sanction of Government.

2. Should the latter be required, I would desire to know whether only first charges or renewals also need Government sanction.

No. 1949.

Transferred to the Judicial Department.

(By Order)

(Signed)

J. MICHAEL, Colonel,

Secy. to Govt., Mily. Dept.

Fort St. George,
31st March 1877.

ORDER THEREON, 10th April 1877, No. 916.

No. 69.

The rule cited in paragraph 2 of G.O., dated 19th February 1876, contemplates two classes of heads of departments.

2. The High Court, the Board of Revenue, &c., who will pass estimates from officers subordinate to them, forwarding to Government a general estimate of the aggregate charge involved, it being desirable that the Government should be kept informed thereof.

3. Other officers, as Accountant-General, &c., who will submit estimates for sanction.

4. It rests, however, with the Military Department to dispose of paragraph 2 of the Controller's letter, as charges incurred in that department do not come under audit or review in the Civil Department.
