Revenue Department.
No. 5630.
Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
Dated 18th April 1877.

Read the following. 23/2
Extra No. 610.

Board of Revenue.
No. 1072.

From
J. H. Price Esq.
Acting Collector of Cuddalore
To H. C. Stokes Esq.
Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

Sir, I have the honor to draw attention to what appears to be typographical errors in para 10 and clause 1 para 11 of the copy of my letter No. 96 dated 2nd Instant, embodied in the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
No. 1115 dated 9th Instant.

2. There may of course have been blunders in the manuscript itself, but I am, in the printed copy, made to state that

that I believe that there is danger of a water famine. What I believe that I wrote and what I intended to convey was that I believed that there was no danger of any such thing - Again it would appear that I said that the "pauper" element disappeared under more vigilant supervision, whereas I wrote "paper".

3. I notice several other errors and petty omissions in the copy and should feel favored by being permitted to see the manuscript again, as I had a fair rough made of my original draft and carefully corrected it before it was finally written out. I further promised ^{copying} the clerk

23122
that, if I saw any mistakes when it appeared in print, I should give him for them.

Indupat Collection Office
Campbell
30th March 1877

I have &
J. Price
Collector

The first error appears in the collector's letter, the second is a misprint. The meaning in both is sufficiently clear, with reference to what has gone before. The Superintendent of the Press will be requested to have the errors corrected if the type is not broken up -
