Dated 19th April 1877

Read Proceedings of Madras
Government, R.D. dated 10th March 1877.
No. 1019, observing that Government concur with Board that alterations in present law which the Consolidated Customs Bill proposes; and which are set forth in State -ment of Objects and Reasons are expedient, but do not concur with Board and Colls. of Malabar in deeming an amendment of Sec 26 necessary for purpose of restricting trade in the produce of the Laccadive Islands.

Communicated to the Collectors of Godavary, Tinnervelly, Malabar & the Collector of Sea Customs.

2. The reasons for the amendment of Sec 26 proposed by Mr Logan appear more clearly from his report on the administration of the Laccadives sub-mitted to Government with Board's Proceeding dated 23rd February 1877.
No 791

the 491 wherein he proposes the substitution of export duty for the coin monopoly. The point is noticed in para 3 of the Board's Proceeding quoted.
