GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

30th July 1877, No. 2,404-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 558-A. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th July 1877.

Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 28th June 1877, No. 316.

In G.O., No. 1,290-A, dated 2nd April, paragraph 3, communicated in Board's Proceedings, Miscellaneous No. 5,623, dated 18th idem, Government remarked "that the good service of Gumastah Narasimha Chari should not be lost sight of, and that an early opportunity should be taken for promoting him."

2. I have the honor to report that Narasimha Chari's permanent appointment is Gumastah in Pulivendla Taluq on Rs. 15 a-month, but he is acting as 3rd-Class Superintendent of Relief-works in the same taluq on a salary of Rs. 40 plus Rs. 20 horse allowance.

3. As he has passed no examination, I am unable to promote him in the permanent establishment of the district unless Government is inclined to make an exception in his case, in consideration of his good service, to exempt him from passing the General Test Examination.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The exemption of Narasimha Chari from passing this test would be a suitable reward for his services. Mr. Price might be authorized to do so at the close of the famine work if Narasimha Chari continues to merit reward.
