REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

31st July 1877, No. 2,407-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 565-A. From C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated 27th July 1877, S.N. Nos. 398-2,190.

I HAVE the honor to report, for information of Government, that some merchants in Salem have offered to purchase the cloths, delivered by the weavers working under relief advances, at the actual prime cost to Government, that is, the value of the materials of which they are composed and the cooly or hire paid for their manufacture, and to pay down the prices on delivery; and to request that Government will be pleased to authorise the disposal of the cloths on those terms.

2. The stock of cloths has considerably increased, and is daily increasing, the weavers working under the advances being over 7,000. By sale as above, the stock in hand will be reduced, the necessity to sell the whole of the stock at one time will be obviated, there will be money coming into the treasury, and the indents for remittance from Madras and other treasuries will be less than at present, as we shall get nearly a lakh of rupees by the sale monthly, the money now laid
