Pres. of Government, 3rd Aug. 1877, No. 2,439.

Sir,—I am directed to forward a Memorial to the address of the Government of India from Veerasawmy Naiken, late Peon in the Sea Customs Office at Paumben, Madura District, complaining that he was unjustly dismissed from that post, and praying for reinstatement in the same.

2. The Peon was dismissed in 1874 for having extorted the sum of annas six from two of the return Ceylon emigrants. Two officials of the Ceylon Emigration Department witnessed the Peon receiving the money, and on their report of the matter the Deputy Collector had him searched, when there were found in his pocket six annas in three two-anna pieces, exactly the same coins in which the two emigrants said they paid the Peon.

3. This Government have no recommendation to make in favor of the memorialist.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

I shall be able to obtain part of the information required for the purpose
I cannot find out from what papers the information is probably from the Dy. Collector's in the case. The paper is not now in the file
