dated 17th ult. No. 1567, and in continuation of my letter of 4th Idem No. 139, I have the honor to state the following circumstances for the information of the Advocate General.
Atmi. Trimal Dor Sait was the holder of several Promissory Notes of the Government of India, and on his death in 1872 interest thereon was paid by this office to the Secretary to the Court of Wards. On the 6th of August 1874 these Securities were endorsed over by the Sd. Secretary of the said Court to A. Sreenivasa Rao Sait, the son of the deceased A. Trimal Dor Sait, on his attaining majority, and the interest accruing was paid to A. Sreenivasa Rao Sait and to subsequent holders under his endorsement, under the instructions conveyed in

in the letter addressed to this office by the late Government Solicitor, Mr. H. Pritchard, dated 15th December 1874, No 637, (copy of which was furnished in my letter to you of 7th ultimo, No 139.) but the fact of Messrs Barclay and Morgan the Solicitors of the Bank, having, on a reference regarding some shares of this Bank standing in the name of the said deceased, expressed in their letter dated 16th December 1876, an opinion different from that of the late Government Solicitor referred to above, has led to the submission of the point raised in my letter to you of 7th ultimo No 139.

2. I enclose copy of the Bank's letter to Messrs Barclay and Morgan dated 14th December last, as well as that of their reply dated 16th Idem.
