Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 18th January 1877.

No. 554. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th January 1877 :—

Read the following letter from A. J. STUART, Esq., Acting Collector of Tinnevely, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Pattur, 22nd December 1876, No. 736.

With reference to Board's Proceedings, No. 2,973, dated 27th November 1876, I have the honor to state that the small bungalow referred to is not included in the proposed purchase. It is too small, and is inconveniently situated among other buildings at the southern end of Messrs. Arbuthnot's premises. There is also a smithy within a few yards of it, and Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co. would probably not be inclined to sell it separately. It is understood that the right of way by the existing road will be allowed; but a condition to this effect should find a place in the deed of sale.

SUBMITTED to Government in continuation of Board's Proceedings, dated 27th November 1876, No. 2,973.

2. The Collector has taken a long time to answer a simple question, and the information he now gives is of the most meagre description. No plan accompanies the letter. The Collector should apply to Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co. for the plan of the premises with a sketch showing how they would mark off the ground.
