Subdivisions.

2. Towards the close of January Mr. Wallace wrote to me that considering the precarious nature of the standing crop in his division it would be better if the inspection of them were commenced on the 1st February and requested my sanction for the entertainment of the temporary gunastabs from that date.

3. I accordingly gave my sanction to the proposal.

4. 12 temporary gunastabs & for each of the Salugs of the Sub-division were entertained for one month from the 1st February but objection was taken to pass their salaries on the ground that the Government order referred to restricted their employment up to 15 February only. As however this period of employment in the Sub-division did not exceed one month which was the term for which the temporary gunastabs were kept up in the other divisions I request that the passing of their salaries up to the end of February may be authorized.
