GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

29th August 1877, No. 2,601.

Read the following paper:—

No. 439. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th July 1877.

Read the following letter from G. D. LEMAN, Esq., Collector of the Kistna District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 22nd June 1877, No. 1,288.

WITH reference to G.O., No. 539, of 6th February last, communicated with Board's endorsement, No. 2,922, dated 27th idem, I have the honor to submit a brief account of the family of Julfakar-ud-Dowlah, the petitioner.

2. The original grantee of the family was Nazamut-Dowlah, the fifth son of the late Hussain Ali Khan, formerly Nabob of Masulipatam.

3. Nazamut-Dowlah was in receipt of an allowance of Rs. 419-6-0 until he died in 1842, when his full allowance was renewed* in the name of his eldest son Jalal-ud-Dowlah (petitioner's father) for the support of his branch of the family.

* India Government Order of 23rd December 1842, No. 189.

4. Some time afterwards complaints of irregularities in the distribution of the allowance among the various members of the family having been made, the allowance of Rs. 419-6-0 was split up by Government (vide Extracts Minutes Consultation of 27th October 1845, No. 1,252), and ordered to be paid to the different members of the family separately. Jalal-ud-Dowlah's own share was then reduced to Rs. 60, which he received until his death on 11th January 1863.

1 Widow, }
5 Sons, } 9 Persons.
3 Daughters, }

5. He left behind him a large family as per margin, and nominated his eldest son Julfakar-ud-Dowlah, the petitioner, to be the head of the family, to which the other members agreed.

6. On the demise of Jalal-ud-Dowlah the Government of Madras, on the recommendation of the Collector and the Board of Revenue, made an application for the renewal of Jalal-ud-Dowlah's reduced pension, Rs. 60, in the name of the petitioner from the date of his father's demise.

7. But the Government of India declined to sanction that amount and allowed Rs. 10† to Nurin-nissa Begum, Jalal-ud-Dowlah's widow, and another Rs. 10‡ to Khan Sahib, his insane son, besides Rs. 5 to each of his three daughters until they were married. Accordingly, the pensions of the latter were discontinued when they married.

8. Petitioner, as head of the family, drew the pension of his mother and insane brother and paid the same to them until they died in the cyclone of 1st November 1864 when their houses were destroyed and the property was washed away in the sea inundation.

9. Soon after that the petitioner and his surviving two younger brothers applied for the continuance of their father's pension. The Collector recommended that the pension of their deceased mother and brother should be continued to them "as they were in extreme poverty without any means of livelihood except that afforded by their pensions." This was accordingly sanctioned in the name of the petitioner for the support of himself and his brothers.

1 Himself.
1 Wife.
3 Sons.
1 Daughter.

10. The petitioner has a large family consisting of six members as shown in the margin besides old domestic servants. He is in a most distressed state, having no other means of livelihood.

11. The heads of the other branches of Nabob Hussain Ali Khan's family are now receiving pensions as noted in the margin.

	Monthly.	Rs.	A.	P.
1. Nazam-ud-Dowla Rustanja
David Ali Khan	1,183	0	0
2. Sadulla Khan	230	0	0
3. Yamin-ud-Dowla Hyder Ali Khan	279	0	4

12. Petitioner's cousin Rustumdil Khan, son of Samsum-ud-deen Ali Khan, sub-sharer of Jalal-ud-Dowla, is now drawing his father's pension, Rs. 60 per mensem, which was granted to him when the petitioner's father Jalal-ud-Dowla's pension was split up.

13. I therefore beg to recommend that two-thirds of his father's reduced pension, Rs. 40 (inclusive of Rs. 20 now paid to him), may be renewed in his name from the date of sanction for the support of the petitioner and his brothers.

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to G.O., dated 6th February 1877 No. 539.

2. The Board support the recommendation made in paragraph 13.
