The Collector of the Chiefpost District
Sir

As directed in your letter of the 12 Instant No 1127, I have the honor to

To inform you that I have this day called upon all divisional officers to forward to me, with as little delay as possible, bills for charges incurred on account of Famine outlay from the commencement of relief, with the view of my submitting the same to you for countersignature and transmission to the Accountant General.

I presume that your object in desiring that these bills should be forwarded to me in the first instance is, that I should examine & check them prior to submission to you for countersignature.

This

This I shall be happy to do, but as my establishment has already as many famine statements and accounts to prepare as they are physically capable of by working even on holidays and at extra hours, I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to apply to the Board of Revenue for the Entertainment of the extra establishment noted in the margin,	x. 1 accountant	Rs 40 extra duty which the arithmetical examination & check of these accounts will entail.

Approved for the present but the establishment seems to the Board somewhat excessive for the purpose as all that the Collector's office will have to do is to check the totals of the bills and compare them with the Treasury accounts.
 The Collector will report further as to the necessity and also, without delay, what arrangements have been made in divisional offices for the preparation of the bills and for the audit of current relief charges. No classified statement of outlay has yet reached the Board and they hear that the matter has been neglected
