GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

3rd September 1877, No. 2,632-B.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 27-C. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th August 1877, No. 3,699.

Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 31st July 1877, No. 3,553.

Read also the following letter from L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Fort St. George, 2nd August 1877, No. 4,900:—

WITH reference to Board's Proceedings, dated 31st ultimo, No. 3,553, I have the honor to point out that Lieutenant J. Haddock is only a retired officer of the Madras Army temporarily engaged for famine relief duty, and that his travelling allowance falls, therefore, to be regulated under G.Os., dated 5th and 14th May and 2nd July 1877, Nos. 1,645-A, 1,715-A, and 2,172-A, respectively, Revenue.

Submitted for the orders of Government in continuation of Board's Proceedings, dated 20th July, No. 3,391.

2. The Board's Proceedings above read were passed under the impression that Lieutenant Haddock was on the effective list.

Acting Secretary.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 31st July 1877, No. 3,553.

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 20th July 1877, No. 573:—

WITH reference to paragraph 4 of my letter, No. 545, dated 7th instant, I have the honor to forward, in original, letter, No. 139, dated 17th June last, from Lieutenant Haddock, Assistant Famine Officer.

From Lieutenant J. HADDOCK, Special Relief Assistant, to J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, dated 17th June 1877, No. 139.

I HAVE the honor to inform you that from a letter received from the Head Assistant Collector (after I had submitted my travelling allowance bills for your sanction), in which he states that I am entitled to draw travelling allowance only for the days that I make a march; now I do not think that this was the intention of Government when granting travelling allowance to officers temporarily employed, and I beg to state my reasons for so doing.

An officer in the Public Works Department is allowed so many rupees per diem. According to his rank he draws that amount daily while on his tour of inspection, and after his arrival at head-quarters he is allowed three days and a fourth if Sunday intervenes without forfeiting any of his allowance, but, if he should stop on the fifth day, he forfeits the whole amount for the number of days that he remained. Now I should think that Government intended to grant the allowance in some such way as the above. An officer must halt for one or two days in each place when on his tour of inspection, or how else is the duty that he is engaged on to be done in a zealous and honest manner; and, if travelling allowance is not granted for those days, how is he to pay for the monthly hire of a couple of carts to carry his tents, baggage, &c., from one place to another, for in the greater number of villages that I have visited in the Hindu poor Taluk there is not a cart to be had for hire.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

Revenue Department, 3rd September 1877, No. 2,632-B.

I beg that you would be good enough to inform me if you are of my opinion regarding the travelling allowance granted to the Assistant Collectors, so that I may make out my travelling allowance bills accordingly.

LIEUTENANT HADDOCK's case differs from that of officers of the class alluded to in the Collector's letter of the 7th July, as he is a Military Officer and entitled to the benefit of the local extra tentage and travelling allowance rules. The orders prescribing that travelling allowance should only be drawn for days on which a march of at least five miles is made (G.Os., 6th May 1877, No. 1,645-A, and 14th May, No. 1,715-A, and 2nd July 1877, No. 2,172-A) do not apply. The Accountant-General will, therefore, be requested to explain what objection has been raised in this case.
