GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

3rd September 1877, No. 2,633-B.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 29-C. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 20th August 1877, No. 3,891.

Read the following letter from A. KRISTNAMAH, Officiating Temporary Deputy Collector, Chingleput, to R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of Chingleput, dated Periacuppam, 8th August 1877, No. 340:—

I HAVE the honor to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Board for entertaining an extra Taluq Sheristadar and three Accountants in this taluq to examine and check the village relief accounts and the diaries of Relief Inspectors, as also to attend to all other works connected with the issuing of money-dole tickets and passing bills for payment of advances to Munsifs. Village relief has of late assumed such magnitude in this taluq, that a special establishment is absolutely necessary in the interest of both Government and the public. The present taluq establishment has more than enough to do, and I find it impossible to get the additional work thrown on it, done systematically or with anything like promptitude. Wherever I go, I meet with complaints by Munsifs that either they have not received the advance that they have applied for, or that no notice has been taken of the list of distressed paupers sent by them through the Relief Inspector for a money-dole ticket. Even at the Cutcherry, I find paupers, relegated from the Madras Camps in large numbers, are unduly detained for nearly a whole day before tickets are issued and advices sent to Village Munsifs for the payment of the dole. I think therefore the appointment of a special officer of the grade of Taluq Sheristadar, and three Accountants on a salary of Rupees 15 each, would obviate the present delay, annoyance, and complaint of the paupers.

2. I may add that the total number of tickets in this taluq this moment is 23,370 out of a population of 150,740, and I leave it to you to judge, whether the ordinary taluq establishment is sufficient to cope with the additional work thrown on it, without seriously impeding and delaying the regular work of the office.

No. 605.

SUBMITTED to the Board of Revenue for favorable consideration and orders.

2. The Collector fully concurs with the Deputy Collector regarding the necessity for some additional establishment.

3. Meantime strict orders have been issued to do the best possible with the present establishment so as to avoid the inconvenience referred to at the close of paragraph 1.
