ENCLOSURE No. 3.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th July 1877, Miscellaneous No. 8,279.

Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Salem, 15th May 1877, No. 270.

With reference to paragraph 69 of the Board's Proceedings, No. 304, dated 26th January 1877, I have the honor to submit herewith a statement specifying the works on which the sum of Rupees 4,743 therein referred to was spent.

2. Korambo fees under the Cavary channels have been collected from the year 1872-73, but they were held in deposit till October 1875, when the accumulated collections minus the expenditure up to that date, amounting to Rupees 10,932-14-5 were carried to Irrigation Cess Fund. This sum together with the subsequent collections up to the end of the official year amounted to Rupees 14,135, which was shown as receipts in the accounts of 1875-76. The expenditure above mentioned, viz., Rupees 4,743, appertains only from October 1875 to the close of that official year.

3. Previous to the transfer of the accumulated balance of the Korambo fees to the Irrigation Cess Fund, the amounts required for expenditure were drawn from the amount in deposit.

4. As to the rates at which the fees are collected, I beg to state that lands irrigated by channels pay at the rate of rupees 2 per acre, and that those to which water is bailed at one rupee per acre.

BEFORE submitting to Government the foregoing letter and its enclosure, the Board request the Collector to state the authority under which Korambo fees have been collected from 1872-73 to furnish particulars of the establishment kept out of the fees and to explain why Ammapoliam bridge was twice repaired in 1875-76 as shown in the statement.
