GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

7th September 1877, No. 2,671-B.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 123-C. From W. DONALD, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 24th August 1877, No. 607.

WITH reference to G.O., dated the 30th April 1877, No. 1,600-G, Revenue Department, I have the honor to state that Mr. Whannell, late on famine relief duty, Salem, reports that under Mr. Stuart's orders he took tents with him upon his transfer from Tinnevelly to the Salem District, and that he defrayed out of his own pocket their carriage expenses and the pay and Railway fare of the lascar in charge amounting in all to Rs. 59-4-6, as per the accompanying bill; but there is no order of Government under which the amount can be made good to him.

2. Copies of Mr. Stuart's orders on the subject attached to Mr. Whannell's letter are forwarded herewith (their originals were produced before my Assistant in charge of the Famine Department), and I forward this claim for such orders as Government may see fit to issue.

No. 123-D. ORDER THEREON, 7th September 1877, No. 2,671-B.

Miscellaneous.

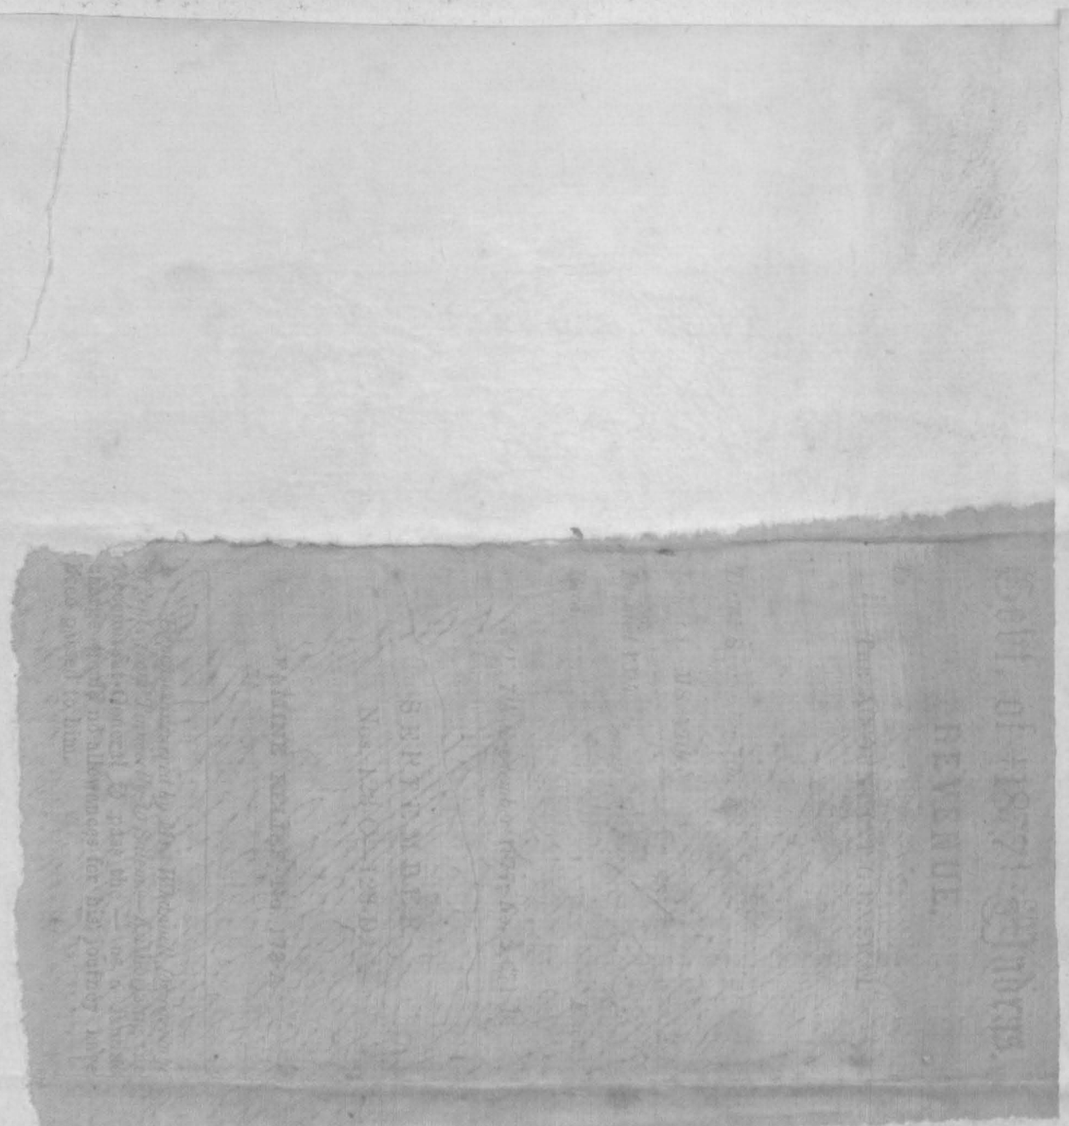

Should no allowances for his journey from Tinnevelly to Salem have been passed to Mr. Whannell the Accountant-General is authorized to pass the amount of his bill, Rs. 59-4-6, as a famine charge.
