Read the following paper:—

No. 131-C. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th August 1877.
Read the following letter from A. M. JONES, Esq., Deputy Collector, General Duties, Chingleput District, to R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, dated Sydapet, 31st July 1877, No. 248:—

I HAVE the honor to enclose, for your information, an arzi, No. 612, dated this day, with enclosure, received from the Saidapet Tahsildar, reporting that the officer in charge of the relief camp at the Red Hills refused to admit some ten paupers belonging to Conjeveram, who, after being supplied with a meal, were taken to him by the Village Munsif of the Red Hills. It would seem from this that this large camp is now, at the height of the distress, closed to paupers with a strength of some 5,000 only. Major Murray informed me the other day that he had heard from Captain Wilson that this large camp had been closed to outsiders, and this report comes in confirmation of the intelligence. It would appear that the people refused admission found their way to Madras.

SUBMITTED to the Board of Revenue for information.

SAIDAPET,

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board do not know what rules are now in force regarding admission to the Red Hills camp; but, if paupers presenting themselves there for relief are refused admittance, they will certainly proceed on their way to Madras, a step which the Government are most anxious to discourage.

No. 131-D. ORDER THEREON, 7th September 1877, No. 2,675-B.

Miscellaneous.

It is observed that the Red Hills camp was formed to receive the paupers congregated at the relief-houses in the town of Madras; the people from Conjeveram had, therefore, no claim to admission to the camp, which is not intended for the relief of those who can get relief at home.
The Munsif of Conjeveram should not have sent them to it.
