GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

8th September 1877, No. 2,684-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 148-A. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th August 1877, No. 3,980.

Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 15th August 1877, S. N. No. 439-2394.

Three draughtsmen, as per margin, on Rs. 8 and 6 were detailed from the Survey Office, Madras, for famine duty in this district, and when posted their pay was raised to Rs. 15 each in consideration of the extra work they were to perform in a foreign district to which they were posted.

By G.O., No. 2,157, dated 29th June last, all extra allowances and increased pay of Survey subordinates working in distressed districts have been withdrawn; and the draughtsmen, if they are to continue in this district, will have only to receive Rs. 8 and 6, respectively, their original Survey pay, together with the 1½ Rs. famine batta; but these sums are quite insufficient for their maintenance in an up-country place like this, and they wish to return to Madras; but to permit them to do so at this time will be a source of serious inconvenience. They are employed in the divisional offices and Huzoor, and are entrusted with the work of preparing the weekly maps of the district sent to Board every week, and any drawing work that may have to be done in the above offices is also performed by them. They know their work, and if their services are to be dispensed with, there will be no one not only to prepare the weekly maps, but also to execute sundry plan-drawing work in the divisional offices and the Huzoor, and work will be affected. I have the honor, therefore, to suggest that Government be moved to sanction the employment of three temporary draughtsmen on Rs. 15 each, so that these men may be retained in their present posts. The Superintendent of Revenue Survey can employ three draughtsmen in the places of these men, who will, however, have a lien on their permanent appointments, to which they can revert when famine is over.

SUBMITTED for the favorable consideration of Government.
