Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 282-A. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th August 1877.

Read the following letter from W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Palmanair, 4th August 1877, No. 479.

MR. H. W. BLISS having been transferred as Additional Sub-Collector to this district for famine duties, I propose to place him in charge of the Arcot and Polur Taluqs. As he will have to attend to the revenue and magisterial business of those taluqs in addition to the extensive relief-works in progress therein, I have the honor to submit, for sanction, the marginally noted establishment to work under him.

	Total ...	282

2. The salaries of the Sheristadar and the revenue and magisterial Moonshies are fixed on a scale intermediate between those in force in the office of the permanent Sub and Head Assistant Collectors.

3. C. V. Srinivassa Chariar, B.A., is well qualified to act as Sheristadar. He is a graduate of the Madras University, and has passed all the necessary special test examinations. He once acted as Translator in my office, and has acquired considerable revenue experience in his late capacity as Receiver on behalf of the District Court in the Carvetnagger Zemindari, a large portion of which was, for a length of time, under attachment. He is at present Examiner of Accounts in connection with the decreed division of the Kungundy Estate, and I have selected him for the post of Temporary Sheristadar.

4. The remaining establishment will be entertained on receipt of the Board's sanction.

5. The pay of the whole establishment is to be met from Famine Relief Funds, and I solicit early orders on the subject.

SUBMITTED to Government.

2. The Board do not consider Sheristadar necessary: an officer of that grade has not been allowed elsewhere. A Head Clerk on Rs. 70 should suffice, and the pay of the Writers might be reduced to Rs. 15; the staff of Clerks will then be the same as that sanctioned for the Additional Sub-Collector, Bellary, in G.O., dated 24th November 1876, No. 1,793. The number of Peons might be increased to six; the cost of the establishment will then be Rs. 251 per mensem.
