ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Head Qrs. Ootacamund,
1st May 1877.

From

Brigadier Genl. R. C. Stewart,
~~The~~ ADJUTANT-GENERAL,

To

J. N. Garstin Esq^{re}
Additional Secretary to Government
Revenue Department,

Sir,

In reply to your Telegram of the 28th ultimo, I am desired to state that the Commander-in-Chief regrets that he cannot accede to the request therein contained, for the services of Lieutenants Christie and Panton, Royal Artillery, being placed at the disposal of Government for famine duty.

His Excellency with every wish to aid the Government, finds it impossible to deplete European Regiments or Batteries of Artillery, of their Officers.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

R. C. Stewart
Brigadier General
Adjutant General.
