My dear Gustav.

The enclosed, with your note of yesterday, has this minute only reached me. I had previously received your note of today, telling me that W. Hinds is due at Bellary about 18^h instant.

I do not think that W.
Gompertz will be required on Bellary. Hinds has - but it is very difficult to say. Major Joff sent me some days ago a list of P.W. men who had already been employed on the railway, & whom he was anxious to get again. I handed the list to Ford, who said he would do his best to meet Joff's wishes.

He may not be able to do so, in which case perhaps W. S. might be useful. But there are apparently so many here to be consulted before anything can be done, that some confusion is unavoidable, & the work suffers, - Joff being put to very great trouble & inconvenience.

Many thanks for your kind help. It is the system W. S. is wrong.
Yours sincerely
W. Mantel
