No. 370. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 3rd September 1877.

Read the following diary of H. T. ROSS, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector of Bellary:—

Thursday, 16th August.

1. Audit work and office work.
2. Confab with local merchants.

THE local merchants say that they are now able to supply the Madaksira market fully with rice imported from Bangalore as carts are again procurable to any amount required. I have noticed that lately large supplies have again been coming into market, and I was curious to know why prices (which were easier about a week or ten days ago) have again shown an upward tendency. The merchants say prices have risen again in Bangalore because only three grain trains come in there daily now whereas a little while ago there were six trains daily. They say the number of trains has been restricted by Government. I know nothing of this. Village traders are again busy, and all anxiety about the supply of the village markets in this taluk will probably be over very soon. Some cholam is coming into market from Rurghi, Hindupur, and other local villages, but the merchants say there is very little more expected, and they cannot purchase ragi now. I told them I relied on them entirely to keep the Cusbah and village markets fully supplied, and they were confident of their ability to do so now that the cartage difficulty is over.
